AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Reflective of an economy that has rebounded from the pandemic and continues to gain significant momentum, the South Carolina Department of Commerce (S.C. Commerce), under the leadership of Secretary Harry Lightsey, experienced an incredibly successful year. While recruitment activity was record-breaking, the agency took significant steps internally to be ready for the transformational change on the horizon, which will impact the way industry does business.

To reflect how South Carolina is adapting to and impacting the great transformation happening now and the continued desire to best serve South Carolinians, the agency established a:

- New mission which is to create economic opportunities to increase choices for all South Carolinians
- New vision which is to embrace the future to ensure the state's sustainable future.

With the mission and vision as the driving force, S.C. Commerce continues to capitalize on its hallmark collaborative approach and South Carolina produced remarkable results.

S.C. Commerce carries out multiple functions; however, primary external facing functions represent the agency's three-pronged approach to advancing economic development:

1. Global Business Services
2. Service after the Sale
3. Business and Community Development and Incentives

Global Business Services works across the state, country and internationally to attract companies to establish operations in South Carolina and to help existing operations expand within the state's borders. Apart from South Carolina's selling points that help make those things happen, the other important selling point is the compellation of services the state offers businesses after the sale. Both functions go hand in hand in helping make South Carolina attractive to businesses – as evidenced by last year's successes.

Increasing opportunities for all South Carolinians, from January through December 2021, the state won 153 projects, representing $5.7 billion in capital investment and 18,338 new jobs. The capital investment was 63.5% over the agency's goal, 41% over 2020 and the highest in 10 years, marking only the second time South Carolina has exceeded $5 billion since 2017. Recruited jobs increased 64.5% over 2020 and were 41% over the agency goal. Notably, total recruited investment in rural projects increased by 27% from 2020, marking one of the biggest years for rural investment in the past decade.

While domestic-based companies represented the majority of recruited investments, for the first time since 2017, overall foreign direct investment (FDI) and committed FDI jobs both increased in 2021. And indicative of a healthy economic climate, recruitment was once again diverse with projects in automotive; office, headquarters and research and development; consumer products; ag – processing and canning; and construction, building products and demolition.

South Carolina's total export sales totaled $29.7 billion in 2021, with the state's exporters increasing their reach to more than 195 countries and territories around the world. South Carolina continued to lead the nation in the export sales of completed passenger motor vehicles, accounting for 19.4% of the U.S. market share – and tires, accounting for 36.6% of the U.S. market share.

This record-breaking recruitment and sustained strength in exports underscore the impact of South Carolina’s collaborative economic development community which continues to be supported through S.C. Commerce’s Service After the Sale programs.

While shifting away from predominantly addressing company needs resulting from COVID, the agency provided diverse connections to existing industry in terms of operational assessments and recommendations for appropriate resources including recycling, trade, supply needs and workforce. The Business Services team also managed over 1,400 small business inquiries, which was double the number addressed in the previous fiscal year.

As part of S.C. Commerce’s ongoing effort to support and grow an innovative, technology-based and entrepreneurial business environment, the Innovation team released an innovation report providing insights and growth opportunities directly from the business community and its supporters. The team continues to distribute approximately $500,000 annually via the Relentless Challenge grant program targeting localized initiatives with the mission of progressing and supporting technology-based economic development projects, commercialization of new ideas and the next generation of industry-leading companies. Ten statewide organizations are the beneficiaries of 2022 Relentless Challenge grants.

In line with South Carolina’s rebound from the pandemic, unemployment has returned to the historically low pre-COVID levels. Paired with a robust overall state economy, S.C. Commerce is actively evaluating where South Carolina goes in the next decade – and workforce is a key part of the path forward. The agency added a full-time talent management consultant to assist manufacturers with workforce issues. The 12 Regional Workforce Advisors (RWAs) continued to connect the business and education communities to meet industry workforce demands and had significant engagement in FY21 reaching more than:

- 61,000 students;
- 9,200 educators;
- 5,100 parents; and
- 60 companies.

The third prong in the agency’s approach to advancing economic development consists of Community Development and Incentives.

Community Development is imperative as it solely focuses on rural/community development by awarding grants on an annual basis to help establish or improve local infrastructure needed to assist low- and moderate-income (LMI) populations and, ultimately, increase the competitiveness of these communities in attracting new businesses. During FY 2022, S.C. Commerce awarded more than $28 million in federal grants through the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. These grants were awarded to 46 predominantly LMI communities to address a wide variety of projects including neighborhood revitalization, infrastructure improvement and public safety protection.

Consistent with the rest of the state, rural South Carolina – which is comprised of 14% of the statewide population – experienced significant strides in the past year. In 2021, recruited rural jobs increased 34% over 2020 and were 24% above the annual goal. In fact, 25% of recruited investment went to Tier III and Tier IV counties, representing a 27% increase from 2020. Overall, 2021 was one of the biggest years for rural investment in the past decade.

Additionally, S.C. Commerce is executing its plan for the $65 million allocation for rural development. In 2019, Fiscal Year 2022

AGENCY NAME:	SC Department of Commerce
AGENCY CODE:	P320	SECTION:	050

under Proviso 50.20, the funds were designated to facilitate economic development and infrastructure improvements in 14 eligible counties, based on population decline and poverty rate. To date, S.C. Commerce has approved 18 projects in 12 eligible counties for total committed funding of more than $25 million. Projects range from spec building construction, industrial property acquisition and improvement, to wastewater improvements and airport upgrades.

Finally, $30 million of the total allocation was transferred to the Office of Regulatory Staff to fund broadband expansion projects. To date, 17 internet service providers have been approved for projects in 18 counties.

S.C. Commerce also had notable success in other areas, including the enhancement of tools used to sell South Carolina and infrastructure improvements.

- S.C. Commerce upgraded the LocateSC online platform and launched it in early FY 23. The redesigned platform provides complex data layers in addition to comprehensive statewide listings to better outline the advantages of doing business in South Carolina. The LocateSC website has more than 900 active listings. Twenty-six of the sites completed the agency's Palmetto Sites program for industrial sites that have been vetted to meet an individual project's needs.
- The agency continues to deliver on its commitment to transparency by implementing changes that provide increased information to the public, available via the InformSC portal, while working to identify further opportunities to enhance transparency.
- The ScribbleSC platform remains the home for podcasts and related social media to promote South Carolina's innovation community resources.
- In partnership with other stakeholders, S.C. Commerce unveiled the Roadtrip Nation program, a documentary to connect young people with career exploration of South Carolina's diverse industries.
- S.C. Commerce continues to elevate its presence utilizing statewide economic development press releases, a growing social media presence and carefully curated LinkedIn content for agency leadership.
- The agency's social platforms gained notable traction in FY22 as compared to FY21. S.C. Commerce's LinkedIn profile gained nearly 20% in new followers with a 6.9% increase in page views. The agency's Facebook account had an incredible 87% increase in page reach and more than 53% increase in visits. And new followers of S.C. Commerce on Twitter increased more than 132%.

The ability to efficiently move goods to world markets is critical to sustaining the state's competitiveness, both domestically and internationally. Ongoing efforts to strengthen South Carolina's infrastructure network reached major milestones this year including the Navy Base Intermodal Facility (NBIF) and Camp Hall.

- Navy Base Intermodal Facility (NBIF)
  - o The S.C. General Assembly determined in 2021 by Joint Resolution that the S.C. Ports Authority (SCPA) should be the state agency responsible for implementing the NBIF project along with other port-related improvements.
  - o Over the last year and pursuant to an Intergovernmental Agreement required by the Joint Resolution, Palmetto Railways has been transferring permits, contracts and the intermodal terminal-related real property needed for the NBIF to the SCPA. That process is ongoing and expected to be complete in October 2022.
  - o Once the facility is constructed by SCPA, Palmetto Railways will provide rail switching services for the facility.
- Camp Hall Rail Line

AGENCY NAME:	SC Department of Commerce
AGENCY CODE:	P320	SECTION:	050

- o The proposed rail line will bring industrial rail service to the Camp Hall Commerce Park in Berkeley County, while supporting overall infrastructure needs and opening the door to greater economic development efforts in South Carolina.
- o Bridge design review is currently being reviewed by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), via Santee Cooper, for the bridge design over the diversion canal located on Santee Cooper-owned and FERC-regulated property. Approval is pending for this specific review, and other design reviews will be completed with Santee Cooper and FERC during the design completion and construction.
- o A new project design engineer has been onboarded to complete full design. Additionally, the project has been broken into construction phases. The first phase of construction is anticipated to be complete by the end of next year.

Finally, the agency underwent a successful reorganization to restructure divisions to better align synergies, eliminate silos and increase efficiency. To support this internal shift, a full-time, senior team member was hired who is committed to providing training and facilitating professional development. The agency also redesigned the Director of External Affairs role to include pro-active, consistent engagement with state and federal elected officials. And to support this elevated engagement, there is now a dedicated, full-time staff member serving as an intergovernmental liaison to support for external affairs communications.

Through the agency reorganization and refreshed leadership engagement, Secretary Lightsey was and is deliberate in positioning S.C. Commerce to fulfill its mission of creating economic opportunities to increase choices for all South Carolinians while all team members work toward the vision of embracing the future to ensure the state's sustainable advantage. To maintain this forward-facing effort, the agency has: embarked on the creation of a new brand that will embrace South Carolina's future; started engaging in a strategic planning effort to define the agency's goals for the next few years; and committed to recommending flexible incentives to address existing and future industry needs. S.C. Commerce is also committed to ensuring the state is prepared to embrace transformational change and is proactive in exploring opportunities for continued success.

Risk Assessment and Mitigation Strategies

1. Potential public impact: Should S.C. Commerce not accomplish its goals and objectives, the public would potentially realize the impact with a general decrease in economic opportunity, including employment opportunities and overall quality of life.
2. Potential outside mitigation efforts: While S.C. Commerce cannot control some of the factors that directly influence the state's business operating climate, the team has adopted a pro-active approach to ensure companies already operating — or looking to operate — within our borders have the support and available resources to best navigate any uncertainty.
3. Three options for the General Assembly to help resolve the issue (before it becomes a crisis):
  - a. To sustain the state's economic development momentum, the General Assembly would be deliberate in maintaining South Carolina's pro-business environment, including all areas of the state.
  - b. As the economy continues to diversify and to ensure South Carolina's competitive advantage, the General Assembly would be receptive to modifying the state's incentive structure to meet these evolving needs and keep South Carolina competitive with neighboring states.

- c. To ensure the state’s sustainable future in terms of the opportunities robust economic development creates for South Carolinians, S.C. Commerce needs to enhance its ability to market the state and the benefits of doings business here across the country and the world.
